Youth Corner

"I got in a fight with my girlfriend," I said. "I was just driving around, blowing off steam, you know?"

Well, you should be more careful where you drive," the officer said. "You're making people nervous. You don't fit the profile of the neighborhood."

I wanted to tell him that I didn't fit the profile of the country but I knew it would just get me into trouble."

Family Night

Roots To Grow

The Aboriginal Child, Youth and Family Program provides one to one, group, family and caregiver support to strengthen individuals, families and foster placements.

The Roots to Cedar Program is client focused, confidential and works to provide culturally sensitive supports and services.

Whether you are a child or youth having challenges at home, at school or personally; a family needing help; or a caregiver supporting a child of a relative or foster placement, we can help and provide access to assistance, cultural activities, learning opportunities, resources, fun activities and social opportunities within Richmond.
